

Short Bio

Of

Md. Rafiqul Islam

Senior Deputy Director and Administrator of ICT
Bangladesh Ansar & VDP

Joined in Bangladesh Civil Service (18th Batch) in 25th January, 1999 and currently he is the ICT Staff Officer to the Director General, Bangladesh Ansar & VDP(ICT Admin) and Innovation Officer of Bangladesh Ansar & VDP to a2i program.

Before joining Bangladesh Civil Service he was lecturer of a college and Banker (1995-1998). Joining the civil service he served in various capacities in field and Ansar-VDP Headquarters. He commanded 4 Ansar Battalions, two Districts and a Vocational Training Center. He served as the PS to Director General of Bangladesh Ansar & VDP. He served at Asian University for Women, Chittagong as Associate Director of Government Liaison and Community Outreach (2010-2015) on lien. He was Local Coordinator of Flood Preparedness Program (FPP), a pilot project of the Ministry of Disaster Management (2015-2016). He was course Director of 34th BCS Ansar Officers Basic Training and MSS in Human Security (MHS) courses (2016-2017). He was designated as Associate Professor of MHS course, that was recognized by the University of Dhaka.

He attended Basic Training Course at Bangladesh Ansar-VDP Academy in 1999, 25th Foundation Training Course at Bangladesh Public Service Training Center, Savar, Dhaka in 2000; 35th Military Orientation Training course at Bangladesh Military Academy, Bhatiary, Chittagong in 2000. He attended Vital Installation Security Course in USA under Anti-Terrorism Assistance Program of US State Department in 2002. He received Advanced ICT trainings at different institutions and recently completed Oracle DBA and Application development at BCC (2017).

He earned MA in English Literature from the University of Rajshahi (Class of 1991, came out in 1995) and MS in Management Information System(MIS) from Daffodil International University, Dhaka (Class of 2006-2007).

He is married and proud father of two daughters.